Join the Alaska Skijoring and Pulk Association!!!

The Alaska Skijoring and Pulk Association (ASPA) was formed to coordinate and promote skijoring and Nordic-style dog mushing activities in Alaska and the lower 48. We offer a variety of events including beginners' clinics, training sessions, races, trail tours, potluck social gatherings and other events to provide information and guidance about this exciting sport. All members are welcome, no matter what their skill level is. Membership entitles you to free admission to some training clinics, discounts on admission to regular events, a copy of the monthly club newsletter, email notification of trail tours and other events and free personal classified ads in the club newsletter. If you wish to join our club please fill in the membership form, include the membership fee in U.S. Funds, and mail to our ASPA address written below, or see us at one of our next club events. To pay on-line using pay-pal go to www.alaskaskijoring.org .

Also, ASPA maintains 8 miles of trails at Creamer's Field and the North Star Golf Course and does some grooming off of Isberg Dr. The labor is all volunteer but other expenses (snow machine maintenance & insurance, gasoline, grooming equipment, and sign purchases) cost at least $1000 per season. If you use the trails at any of these locations please consider making a donation to help ASPA keep the trails groomed during the winter. Thank you!
